Development Director

kfaria[at]ncrp.org

Kevin has been with NCRP since 2005. His experience prior to joining NCRP includes helping to direct the individual membership and donation program at MHz Networks, a small group of independent public television stations in the Washington, D.C market. In addition to traditional membership outreach through mail, e-mail, and telephone campaigns, Kevin helped organize live televised fundraising campaigns and community outreach events, and worked on a major rebranding and marketing campaign.

He has also done contract work for clients such as the fundraising department of the George Washington University Law School and the National Economic Research Associates. Kevin holds a bachelor's degree in political science from American University. He is a member of the Association for Fundraising Professionals and Emerging Practitioners in Philanthropy.
