

There is a broad and growing support for NCRP's Criteria for Philanthropy at its Best ®. NCRP has circulated a summary of the Criteria over the past few months leading up to the release. The following individuals have signed on as endorsers. Leaders from many different sectors think these criteria are important, and that the world would be a better place if more institutional grantmakers lived up to the Criteria. The individuals listed have indicated they want to be listed as endorsers and that they are in substantial agreement with the Criteria. Organizations are listed for identification purposes only and should not be interpreted as signifying an institutional endorsement unless otherwise stated.
