

Nearly 5 years after Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, learn how commitment, collaboration, and creativity are transforming the Gulf Coast—and how strategies there can be used
around the country.

Katrina @ 5 is a collaborative effort of the Association of Small Foundations and more than 30 partner organizations representing national, regional, and local funders and funder networks.

This conference is made possible
in part through generous grants from The Azby Fund and the Ford Foundation.

Explore philanthropy's role as a partner in recovery and transformation—together with hundreds of fellow funders.

Tap into critical conversations brought to the forefront by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita—on disaster preparedness, response, and recovery; housing and homelessness; economic rejuvenation; education; community involvement; and more.

Celebrate and be inspired by progress made in the Gulf Coast. You'll find a window onto the hard work that donors, nonprofits, and many others are doing to address issues of local, regional, and national significance.

Gain up close insight into the significant work that remains in the Gulf—issues being faced on the ground, the areas of unmet need, and the opportunities for action.

AFFIRM YOUR SUPPORT FOR THE GULF THROUGH YOUR PRESENCE, YOUR ATTENTION, AND YOUR ACTION.
