

For Immediate Release
3/20/2007
NCRP
202.387.9177 ext. 17
ymoore@ncrp.org

Contact: Yna Moore

NCRP's Responsive Philanthropy Looks to the Future

Res Opportunities For Reform in 2007, the Importance of Rural Philanthropy

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy (NCRP) released today the

“In looking to the near future, we are able to see real possibilities for change and reform in the philanthropy.”

Rachel Swierzewski, a research consultant for NCRP’s rural philanthropy project, addresses the current

Dorfman, who recently joined NCRP as executive director, looks to the next chapter for NCRP’s thirty-d

David R. Jones, NCRP’s Board Chair and President and CEO of the Community Service Society, discu

In reaction to George W. Bush’s State of the Union address and the recently elected members of Cong

Subscriptions to Responsive Philanthropy are free to NCRP members and are also available online

NCRP is a national watchdog and research organization that promotes public accountability

###