

For Immediate Release

12/6/2006
NCRP/Soft Skull Press
202.387.9177 x17 / 718.643.1599
ymoores@ncrp.org/kristin@softskull.com

Contact: Yna C. Moore/Kristin Pulkkinen

FAMILY PHILANTHROPY'S NEW VOICE

Washington, D.C.- Estimated at $4 billion, the new generation of philanthropy is being created through family

Creating Change Through Family Philanthropy: The Next Generation people are seeking to transform the

"Goldberg and Pittelman make a compelling case for the need to understand the concerns of these young

Although news of large donations and new approaches to philanthropy are helping sustain interest and

"In a world where inequality is a crisis threatening the well-being of all of us, we must find a way to distrib

This book, available in Soft Skull Press provides information on difficult issues like understanding the

NCRP is Resource General Creating Change Through Family Philanthropy: The Next Generation in order, p

www.changephilanthropy.org

NCRP is a national watchdog, research and advocacy organization that promotes public accountability a