Cohen Named Among the NonProfit Times' 'Power & Influence Top 50' List

WASHINGTON-Rick Cohen, executive director of the National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy, has been named among the "Power & Influence Top 50" list by the NonProfit Times. "Cohen takes no prisoners when it comes to looking at public policy, and it's clear through the research that he has done that he is one of the most influential people in the philanthropic sector," said the publication. "It is truly an honor for NCRP to be recognized in this way by the NonProfit Times," said Cohen. "This is a testament to the work we do and the impact we have on the philanthropic sector." Also included on the list is Gary Bass, a longtime NCRP board member and founder and executive director of the National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy. Founded in 1976, the National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy is dedicated to helping the philanthropic sector achieve its mission.
