

For Immediate Release

5/5/2004

Contact:

Naomi Tacuyan

202-387-9177, ext. 17

naomi@ncrp.org

ITICAL MISUSE OF PHILANTHROPIC AND NONPROFIT STATUS

s serious repercussions for the long-term accountability of the philanthropic and nonprofit sectors

WASHINGTON-The National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy (NCRP) once again denounces
This statement comes in light of the forthcoming "Rockin' on the Dock of the Bay" concert party organiz
"The involvement of politicians in charitable events undermines the long-term accountability of charities
"Events like these demonstrate why Congress must reinstate the Congressional gift ban, which would h
Ideally, using charitable fundraising events for political benefit should be prohibited, to preserve the inte
(more)

NCRP News Release
Tuesday, May 4, 2004

Page 2 of 2

NCRP's concern with the Democrats' "Rockin' in the Dock of the Bay" event is likened to our concern w