PHILANTHROPIC REFORM GROUP HIRES NEW COMMUNICATIONS ASSOCIATE

Activist Naomi T. Tacuyan Joins NCRP's Communications Team

WASHINGTON ----- The National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy (NCRP) today announced the hiring of Naomi T. Tacuyan as its new communications associate. "We are very pleased to bring Naomi on board to enhance our media relations, publications and other communications efforts," said NCRP's Executive Director, David M. Dinkins. As NCRP's communications associate, Tacuyan assists senior staff in implementing the organization's communications strategy. Before coming to NCRP, Tacuyan served as Program Coordinator for the National Coalition for Asian Pacific American Community Development (NACPD). (more)

"I am truly excited to join an organization that has consistently promoted a progressive philanthropic model," Tacuyan said. Founded in 1976, the National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy is dedicated to helping the philanthropic sector promote a progressive model of philanthropy.
