THE TIMES 'POWER AND INFLUENCE TOP 50,' DEEMED 'ONE OF THE SECTOR'S NEW, IMPORTANT THINKERS' NAMED NCRP PRESIDENT RICK COHEN Public Accountability Group Chosen Among Top Nonprofit Leaders

WASHINGTON

----- Rick Cohen, president of the NCRP, was named among the "Power and Influence Top 50" by The New York Times.

"Smart, articulate, with a sharp wit, Cohen is rebuilding the NCRP's image by directing insight, important leadership, and a strong vision for the future of the sector," said a source familiar with the listing.

Among the sector's other notables identified in this year's listing, Audrey Alvarado, executive director of the Public Accountability Group, was also named.

"It truly is quite a humbling honor for NCRP to be recognized in this way," said Cohen. "This is really a testament to the hard work of our staff and the support of our members."
