WATCHDOG GROUP ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

WASHINGTON, DC – The National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy announced today the election of two new members to its board of directors.

NCRP executive director Aaron Dorfman said, “We’re delighted to have these two talented individuals join our board. Their expertise and leadership will be a great asset to the organization.”

William Schulz joins the organization’s board of directors after eight years as the Executive Director of the Center for Global Policy Studies at the Brookings Institution.

Schulz previously served on the boards of People for the American Way, Planned Parenthood of America, and the American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy.

Sherece Y. West, Ph.D., President of the Winthrop Rockefeller Foundation (WRF) was also elected to the board. West has served on the boards of the Winthrop Rockefeller Foundation, the Council on Foundations, and the Council on Foundations.

West also serves on the board of the Council on Foundations and recently completed service on the board of the Council on Foundations.

NCRP is a national watchdog, research and advocacy organization that promotes public accountability and transparency in philanthropy. For more information, visit www.ncrp.org or call (202) 387-9177.
